DISCLOSURE AND AGREEMENT

- Potential candidates understand there is a risk of liability associated with acting as a credit union officer or director. The risk also involves a potential personal liability that could include recovery from the directors themselves (personally) rather than or in addition to the liability of the credit union.
- The application information is confidential and will stay at Affinity Credit Union. If you request, the credit union will provide you with the name and address of the credit bureau from which it received your credit report.
- If you are selected as a candidate, you may be required to attend a formal interview with the Nominating Committee. The names and addresses of the board of directors are furnished to regulators and may be a matter of public record.
- Each director is expected to prepare for and attend regular monthly board meetings and the annual membership meeting. In addition, planning sessions or other board events may require attendance.
- Non-adherence to the Policies and Procedures of Affinity Credit Union may result in a director's removal.
- It is the intent of Affinity Credit Union to do a background check on all potential candidates. By signing the disclosure below, you give consent to a criminal background check as well as approval to obtain employment information and credit reports relating to this application and review.

I affirm I have read and reviewed the Affinity Credit Union Nominating Committee Information and Board of Directors Application. I do meet the qualifications required. I do consent and give my authorization to obtain employment information, a criminal background check, and credit reports for review and consideration in determining my qualifications for candidacy on the board of directors at Affinity Credit Union.
